Dear Mr Haythornthwaite,

Thank you for your letter dated 25th February.

We are confused – you asked us in your letter dated 5th February whether we would attend a meeting, to which in our response letter to you on the 11th February we replied; yes. So let us have the meeting and engage in a proper discussion - as we have attempted to do since our LLSB-SBC-01 letter sent to you over 8 months ago on the 28th June 2013.

In addition, we do not understand what you are saying in this correspondence. Do you recognise the future of the Undercroft – as supported by over 100,000 Long Live Southbank members, and as clearly detailed by the Mayor of London in his statement of the 15th January – or don't you?

We are sure you would agree it would be far more beneficial for all if we were to just get on with the meeting as suggested by you; especially given that you revealed in your statement published on the 5th February that you are working to a 3 month deadline.

Kind regards,

S Blayney
