Dear Mr Bishop,

Thank you for your letter dated 7th March.

The letter is unclear in terms of the meeting structure and set up and who exactly would be in attendance. I assume you will be providing details of the invitees and agenda with ample notice?

I can confirm the availability of Simon Ricketts and Paul Richards as follows:

W/C 17th March: 17th 3:30-5:30 / 21st 1:00-5:30
W/C 24th March: 24th 2:00-5:30 / 25th 10:30-5:30
W/C 31st March: 31st 1:00-5:30 / 2nd 9:30-5:00 / 3rd 9:30-2:30 / 4th 2:00-5:30

Given the very different roles, obligations and responsibilities of the Board and the CEO, we suggest two meetings: one with the Board and one with you as Southbank Centre CEO and other invited parties.

You have asked if we think 'any other users of the space should attend'. As you will be aware from your methodical and meticulous monitoring of our online campaign and social media, Long Live Southbank's 100,000-plus members are made up of all users of the Undercroft – from the regular daily users to the less frequent and ad hoc – including: skateboarders, BMXers, street artists, graffiti artists, photographers, filmmakers, unicyclists, traceurs/free runners, rollerbladers, scooter users, dancers and others. In addition, and as our campaign has clearly shown, we are also very much supported by a very wide spectrum of the creative arts and cultural community, including performers and practitioners who use the Southbank Centre spaces and venues. We also have support from Southbank Centre Members and Southbank Centre staff, as well as teachers, students, local residents, tourists and other visitors to the South Bank area, many of whom are also LLSB members.

Please continue to make all necessary communications and arrangements with me, which I can then distribute accordingly.

I look forward to receiving further information on the meeting.

Kind regards,

S Blayney
On behalf of Long Live Southbank members and supporters
