Dear Ms Kelly,

We have noted that in your recently created website ‘Southbank For All’, you have published the following statement in reference to the skateboarding community and Undercroft users, a screenshot of which is attached.

“If you are offering another space, why are they angry?”

As you and the rest of your Southbank Management colleagues are fully aware of, we have at no time, and on no occasion, ever expressed “anger”. We call on you to recognise that we have been the epitome of diplomacy, integrity and humility at all Southbank Centre arranged meetings and all public meetings. We have clearly expressed a passion so profound for our art and the space in which it is expressed, that sadly you seem unable to interpret or comprehend.

Whether Southbank Centre constructed the sentence on your website, or you are quoting a specific individual, we do not appreciate being labelled 'angry' which we consider a veiled attempt at pushing a negative image of us and we deem the statement as slanderous.

We would request that you and the Southbank Centre do not use your written, recorded and visual materials, editorials, mailouts and publications in an attempt to vilify us to the public, and that you cease to continue distorting the facts of our campaign and your redevelopment plans and remove the statement "If you are offering another space, why are they angry?" with immediate effect.

Yours sincerely,
