Dear Jude,

Thank you for your e-mail and for providing us with the contact details for both Alan Bishop and Rick Haythornthwaite.

As per our previous e-mail, we would like to reiterate that though we are committed to constructive dialogue and progress, we are not able to commit to any workshop which discusses the move of the Undercroft, given that we do not feel you have demonstrated that such a move is necessary.

Given also that our Village Green application is still outstanding, we would like stress again that relocation discussions are premature.

Therefore assurances from you that the objective of the workshop – currently labelled by you as a ‘Community Meeting’ – is to seek a solution which retains the Undercroft in its current form. In addition, involvement in the workshop content development process, would very much be appreciated.

We look forward to receiving contact by Alan as mentioned.

Kind regards,

Henry
